The First Settlers of Schenectady were citizens of Beverwyck. In 1661 Arent Van Curler extinguished the Indian title to lands at this place, and the following spring, with a little company of pioneers, commenced the first settlement. Two years later the lands were surveyed, allotted and patented to fifteen persons, a portion of whom being non-residents sold out their rights to permanent settlers.

For mutual safety they erected their cottages on the plat lying west of Ferry street, which was fortified with stockadoes. Their farming lands, embracing the islands, and rich flats lying on both sides of the Mohawk, produced bountiful crops of maize and wheat : a church was early formed under the occasional ministry of Dominie Schaets of the mother church at Albany : and in spite of its exposed position as the frontier settlement, the little hamlet prospered and grew in numbers and comforts until 1690, when in one night, the 8th of February, the entire village was destroyed and the inhabitants scattered or slain. Nothing better shows the hardihood and pluck of the survivors than the fact that few if any of them abandoned the settlement ; they returned in the spring, rebuilt their cottages and the little church, cast the seed into the earth, and amid many alarms awaited the harvest. Though often threatened the place was never again attacked.

It is to this little band of hardy pioneers and their descendants that the following pages are mainly devoted. The sources of this compilation are chiefly the Doop and Trouw Boeken of the First Reformed church of this city. These registers of baptisms and marriages are nearly entire from the year 1691 to this date : those of the first 30 years after the settlement were probably burned in Dominie Thesschenmaecker's parsonage in 1690.

These entire records to 1800, and in a few cases later, have been copied and posted into families in this work. The records of the venerable mother church in Albany have also been carefully searched, and whenever entries have been found relating to Schenectady families, they have been inserted herein. Large additions have likewise been made to the above sources of information from the records of the secretary of state, of the clerks of the city and county of Albany, clerk of the court of appeals ; surrogate of the county of Albany ; from Munsell's Annals and Collections of Albany ; from family records and papers, and from gravestone inscriptions. Doubtless there is much additional information to be found by the patient and careful gleaner, especially such as relates to the later generations. In regard to the first two or three generations of descendants from the First Settlers, it is believed they will be found as completely set forth in these pages as they are likely ever to be from authentic sources.

The territory covered by this work is nearly that of the present county of Schenectady, extending about 22 miles along the Mohawk, and 4 miles on each side of that river. For the first hundred years after Schenectady was begun, the settlements were mainly confined to the river flats, gradually advancing westward, and consisted chiefly of descendants from the old Holland families of Albany and Schenectady, the Palatines being still farther west.

But after the French war and more especially after the Revolutionary war, New Englanders and Scotchmen immigrated largely to the high lands lying back from the river, which had hitherto been regarded as of little or no value.

All these new and foreign settlers, until they had churches of their own, brought their children either to Albany or Schenectady to be christened. Hence there will be found in this work many names of families then residing as far west as Caughnawaga and Canajoharie, south to the Helderberg and Schoharie, and north to Galway and Kay-aderosseras patent.

The arrangement of these genealogies is simple and easily to be understood:—the tribal names are arranged alphabetically, and the families under each name are placed nearly in chronological order, and for divers reasons, are made to end with those which began to be entered in the church registers before 1800. Persons interested will find little difficulty in tracing back their pedigrees to the First Settlers, by keeping in mind the following facts. The names of all sons who subsequently became heads of families (so far as the compiler could find), are printed in italics: the husbands of daughters and the parents of both husbands and wives are in all cases mentioned when discoverable. It should also be borne in mind that inasmuch as Schenectady was originally but an offshoot from Albany, the families of both places frequently intermarrying, in making up a pedigree of any old family of Albany county as anciently constituted, this work must be regarded as a complement of the Genealogies of the First Settlers of Albany, and that both works should be carefully consulted and compared.

The Vrooman arms facing page 276 was copied from an ancient painting long in possession of that family, and contributed by Doctor A. G. Brower of Utica.

These works, of which but 200 copies have been printed, are the result of many years research, and contain the names and short biographical sketches, grouped by families, of all the Early Settlers and their Descendants, of the ancient County of Albany, which embraced the territory on both sides of Hudson's river, from Katskill to Schaghticoke, including Kinderhook and Schenectady. The facts are gathered from the Records of the cities of Albany and Schenectady, and of the Dutch Churches, also of Wills, Deeds, Family Pedigrees, and various other Authentic Documents; and being made entirely from original sources never before published, mainly translated out of the ancient Dutch of the first hundred years of the province, are quite full and entirely reliable. The great familiarity of the author with the names and history of the early settlers, derived from long and patient research among the records, has enabled him to produce a remarkably full account of the generations of people that have fulfilled their destinies in this region during the two hundred and fifty years since the first settlement. Among the great number of their descendants, it is reasonable to suppose that there are a few who entertain an interest in their family history, and who will embrace the opportunity to provide themselves with these works, of which but few remain unsubscribed for. Orders addressed to the undersigned, enclosing price of either or both of the books will receive immediate attention.

A KEY TO THE NAMES OF PERSONS

OCCURRING

In the Early Dutch Records of Albany and Vicinity.

The student who searches the early Dutch records meets with many difficulties, none of which are more tedious than their personal names. The majority of the First Settlers ordinarily used no surnames, some evidently had none. In these cases individuals were often distinguished by personal peculiarities, trades, &c., which though sufficient for the time, give little or no aid to one tracing the pedigree of a family. It is only after great familiarity with the early writings and a careful noting of the use of surnames as they are sometimes subscribed to wills, conveyances, and other important papers that any connection can be established between a first settler and his later descendants. But while many individuals had no surnames whatever apparently, a few families had two or more. Marcellis Janse Van Bommel was farmer of the burger and tapster's excise of liquors in Beverwyck many years. Some of his children took Marcellis as their surname, others Van Iveren; without a knowledge of this fact it would be quite impossible for his descendants to trace back their pedigree to him. A similar case occurred in the Albany branch of the Bratts. In the passage over from Holland one child was born in a storm and he was named Storm Van Derzee, which epithet he and his descendants have since used as a surname. It was not uncommon for the same individual to have two or more surnames and to use them differently. Jan Barentse Wemp [Wemple] was sometimes called Poest; he had a mill on the Poesten kil which perhaps derived its name from him rather than from the Dutch word poesten. After his death in 1663 his wife Maritie Myndertse married Sweer Teunise. He had two surnames, Van Velsen and Van Westbroeck. Fort of Niskayuna had the following aliases: Jan La Fort, Jan Vandervort and Jan Libbertse. The change in the spelling and pronunciation of names is likewise a source of considerable embarrassment. Who will recognize the ancient Du Trieux (pronounced Du Troo) in the modern Truax, or Beaufils in Bovie, or Barrow in Barroway, or finally the familiar name of Jones in such laughable disguises as TSans, TJans, and Sbowns.

The system of nomenclature in common use among the early Dutch settlers consisted in prefixing the child to the father's Christian name, terminating in se or sen; in baptism but one name was usually given; the patronymic was used by custom in all cases, and in the absence of a surname was sometimes adopted as a surname. Thus the children of Rutger Jacobsen (Van Schoenderwoert or Van Woert) were respectively Margaret Rutgers, Engel Rutgers, and Harmen Rutgers, and Rutgers was subsequently assumed as the family name. The sons of the First Settler Wynant Gerritse (Vander Poel) were Melgert Wynantse and Gerrit Wynantse. The first settler, Harmen Tomase Hun (Van Amersfort) had a son named Thomas Harmense and a daughter Wynantse Harmense. The First settlers Philip and David Schuyler, were more commonly called Philip and David Pieterse, being sons of Pieter Schuyler. Occasionally two patronymics were used, as Samuel Arentse Samuel Bratt; i. e. Samuel Bratt the son of Arent, who was the son of Samuel. The use of surnames gradually increased among the Dutch from the time the province was occupied by the English in 1664, and after the close of the following century few names were written without the addition of a family name. A list is given to serve as a key to such surnames as are occasionally or almost constantly omitted in the early Dutch Records of Albany and Schenectady. It is as nearly full as the compiler, after a somewhat careful reading of these documents, can make it. The names of persons without surnames, or if having them not entered in those records, will not of course be found here; unfortunately these are somewhat numerous, and other embarrassment in the identification of persons arises from the fact, that some bear the same Christian name. When such cases occur in the list, the dates annexed will sometimes aid in solving the difficulty. Thus the surname of Jacob Abrahamse, found in documents dating 1665-84, was Vosburg alias Kuyper; in those of date 1705, it was Van Deusen. But where there is little or no difference in the dates this helps little and all is left to conjecture.

Two brothers of this name, Albert Andriese and Arent Andriese, were among the early settlers of Albany. They often went by the name of De Noorman. The former remained in Albany, and is the ancestor of most of the name in that county; the latter became one of the first proprietors of Schenectady in 1662, about which time he died, leaving a widow and six children. His wife was Catalyntje, dau. of Andries De Vos, Deputy Director of Rensselaerswyk. After the death of her husband, the grants of land allotted to him, were confirmed to her. Her home lot in the village, was the west quarter of the block bounded by Washington, Union, Church and State streets, being about 200 ft. sq., Amsterdam measure. On this lot her grandson,

On the 12th of Nov. 1664, being about to marry her second husband, Barent Janse Van Ditmars, she contracted with the guardians of her children, to set off for them from her estate, 1,000 guilders, and mortgaged her bouwery, No. 1, on the bowland to secure this sum to them. He was killed in the massacre of 1690. In 1691, she married Claas Janse Van Boekhoven, whom she also outlived. She died in 1712. He was a native of Schenectady, where he lived until the commencement of the Revolution, when he joined the Royal Standard as a cadet in the 42d regiment, and for his conduct in the action which terminated in the capture of Burgoyne, he obtained a commission in the 8th, or King's regiment, and shortly afterwards a lieutenancy in Butler's rangers, in which he served until the reduction of the corps in 1783. He was then appointed a clerk of the peace establishment under the government of Quebec, and after the division of the Province, he was continued in that situation in this district until his death.—Niagara Herald.

CLUTE.

Of this name there were three individuals who early became residents of Albany or its vicinity — Capt. Johannes, Johannes his nephew, and Frederick. Capt. Johannes Clute came to Beverwyck about 1656 from Neurenbergh, was a trader and considerable land holder, at Loonenburgh, Niskayuna, Albany &c. He was held in esteem by the Indians, from whom he obtained extensive tracts of land. It is not known that he had any family. On his death, his property passed to his nephew Johannes Clute, the boslooper.

JOHANNES, alias de boslooper, nephew of the last, settled in Niskayuna upon land received from his uncle. In 1707 he conveyed the Great Island in the Mohawk at Niskayuna and other lands to Robert Livingston for £706 to free himself from embarrassments. In 1692 he being a prisoner in Canada, his wife Baata managed his affairs at home. On the 28th of June she cited Sander Glen and Barent Wemp, administrators of Sweer Teunise Van Velsen's estate, before the court at Albany, demanding of them "nine pounds, six shillings and six pence for y^e remaining pay^t of a negro named Jacob sold by old John Cloet to Sweer Teunise, and produces y^e book of s^t John Cloet Sen^r, kept by her husband, John Cloet Jun^r." The defendants asked time. Johannes Clute m. Baata, dau. of Gerrit Van Slichtenhorst. He was buried in Niskayuna November 26, 1725. EENKLUYS.

HANS JANSE, is worthy to be remembered as the donor of the Poor Pasture to the poor of Schenectady. In 1632 he was one of the Dutch West India Company's officers, who erected the Arms of the States General at a spot called Kievit's Hoeck (Saybrook), at the mouth of the Connecticut river. In July, 1648, on the occasion of Gov. Stuyvesant's visit to Rensselaerswyck, he was employed to clean the Heer Patroon's cannons, and to fire the salute. He was an ancient man in 1680, and apparently without relations in this country, and made the Deacons of the church his administrators and legatees, on condition that he should be supported in his old age and weakness. After his decease in 1683, the deacons applied to the Court of Albany for power to administrate upon his estate, saying that Eenkluyd had been weakly for 13 years since 1670; that they had supported and buried him: the Court referred the matter back to the Court of Schenectady. The original quantity of land was 18 morgens, being that portion lying west of, or above the Hansen kil (now College brook); that portion lying east, or below the creek, called the Boght, was bought of Harmanus Van Slyck in 1806, for $1,750. The whole was sold in 1863 for about $10,000 to pay the debts incurred in building the present church edifice.

GROOT.

SYMON SYMONSE, the first settler, came early to New Netherland in the service of the West India Company, as boatswain of the ship Prince Maurice. In 1645 he bought a house and lot of Jacob Roy, in New Amsterdam. Soon after he came to Beverwyck, where he purchased or built a house, which in 1654 he offered for sale. He had lately withdrawn from the service of the West India Company, against whom he then held a claim for services of 834 guilders. In 1662, being about to remove to the Esopus, he empowered Johannes Withart to sell his house and lot; but it is evident that he changed his purpose, for in 1663 he hired a bouwery of 25 or 30 morgens, of Gerrit Bancker and Harmen Vedderen, at Schenectady, and still retained possession of his house in Albany as late as 1667. "On Thursday, the 4th instant, about four miles from the city of Schenectady, aside the Mohawk turnpike, sitting under a tree, I discovered Petrus Groot, who was supposed to have been slain in the Oriskena battle under General Herkimer on the 6th of August, in the year 1777. I immediately recognized him, and on conversation with him, he confessed himself to be the person I took him to be. I then carried him to the nearest tavern,* where I left him to be sent to his children and brothers, from whence, however, he departed before day the next morning, and was seen in Albany on Friday. His mental faculties are much impaired, supposed to have been occasioned by a wound of a tomahawk near the fore part of his head, though he is at most times tolerably rational. His head is bald; the circle or scar of the scalping knife is plainly to be seen on it, and a stab on the side of his neck near his shoulder; has a small scar near his ankle; is a middle sized man, has blue eyes, a long countenance, and stoops much in the shoulders. He speaks English, French, Dutch and Indian, and says he has been last a prisoner among the Indians north of Quebec; had on an old dark grey coat and old brownish pantaloons; has a large pack with him. He refused to go home, as one of his former neighbors whom he saw, would not recognize him, he was fearful his children and brothers would not. He said he would go to the governor's. Being at times deranged, it is feared he will

* The house to which he was taken, was occupied by Simon Van Patten, better known as Cider Simón, from the circumstance of his manufacturing large quantities of cider annually. stray too far away for his friends to find him. He is of a very respectable family and connexions. Any person who will take him up and bring him to the subscriber, at Schenectady, shall be well compensated for his care and trouble, and will receive the sincere thanks of his children and relatives, and be the means of relieving this poor unfortunate man from distress by restoring him to his family and friends.

Among other real estate in the village, they owned the north corner of State street and Broadway, and had their smith shop without the south gate, on the north corner of Broadway and Spanish (now Hudson) street. They were members of the Lutheran church of which Myndert was elder and Carsten deacon in 1680. The latter died probably about 1690, leaving four children. Myndert Frederickse was armorer to the fort in 1697; made his will March 21, 1703, proved May 1, 1706, in which he spoke of "my house hard by the church in Cow street" (now Broadway), and of "my (Lutheran) church book with silver clasp and chain." He m. first, Cathalyn Burchhard (Burger) in New Amsterdam, Aug. 5, 1656; and secondly, Pietertje Teunise Van Vechten in 1663. At the date of his will he had five Ch. living : Frederick, b. in 1657; Burger, b. in 1660; Neeltie, m. Hendrick Douw; Reiner and Johannes. [See Albany Families.] The unsettled condition of the early Dutch family names is well shown by the descendants of Myndert Frederickse who follow: Some took the surname of Myndertse, his christian name, whilst others took that of Van Iveren, the place from whence he came in Holland.

JOHANNES, son of Myndert Frederickse of Albany, came to Schenectady about 1700; by trade he was a blacksmith and armorer to the fort, and like most other inhabitants of the village, an Indian trader. In 1723 he was arrested by the sheriff of Albany county, and brought before the common council for having, contrary to the ordinances of the city of Albany received into, and harbored in his house, Indians with beaver and other peltry. Whereupon he was fined £10, and in default of payment the sheriff was ordered to keep said Myndertse safely in the common jail, from whence, however, he shortly after escaped. To punish the sheriff for his negligence or connivance, the common council resolved that he should pay Myndertse's fine and costs. To obtain a fair and impartial verdict in his case, Myndertse appealed to the supreme court of the province sitting in New York, and gained his case; the common council was mulcted in damages, fees and costs in the sum of £41, 9, 3. It is believed this decision effectually established the rights of citizens of Schenectady to the same privileges of trade as the citizens of Albany. Johannes Myndertse made his will May 4, 1754, proved Sept. 7, 1757, in which he spoke of his three sons Myndert, Jacobus and Reynier, and distributed his estate between them. He then owned property on the west corner of Mill lane and State street, also on the north side of State street at No. 93, and east of it, where he had a blacksmith shop and a bolting house. He m. SCHERMERHOOREN (SCHERMERHORN).

JACOB JANSE, was born in 1622, in Waterland, Holland, it is said ; though in 1654 his father was living in Amsterdam. He came to Beverwyck quite early, where he prospered as a brewer and trader. In 1648 he was arrested at Fort Orange by Governor Stuyvesant's order, on a charge of selling arms and ammunition to the Indians. His books and papers were seized, and himself removed a prisoner to Fort Amsterdam, where he was sentenced to banishment for five years with the confiscation of all his property. By the interference of some leading citizens, the first part of the sentence was struck out, but his property was totally lost. These proceedings against Schermerhorn formed subsequently a ground of complaint against Stuyvesant to the States General. [O'Callaghan's Hist. N. Y. I., 441.] He made his will May 20, 1688, and soon after died at Schenectady. His estate was large for the times, amounting to 56,882 guilders. His wife was Jannetie Segers, dau. of Cornelis Segerse Van Voorhoudt. Reyer Schermerhorn settled in Schenectady; was one of the five patentees of the patent granted in 1684, and was the sole surviving patentee of the township in 1705, when he was complained of as exercising arbitrary power over the town affairs and rendering no accounts of his proceedings. In 1690 he was member of the Provincial Assembly from Albany county, and Justice of the Peace. In 1700 he was appointed assistant to the Judge of Common Pleas. SIMONDS.

REUBEN, inn keeper in 1785, kept a public house on the west side of Church street, on what is now number 24. This was a popular resort, at which public meetings were held. His house was burned on Pinxter day, 1803: the fire having commenced in a hatter's shop, standing next south, burned thence to State street. Tradition has it, that Burr's carpenters, then at work upon the Mohawk bridge, gave each one day's work towards rebuilding Simonds's house, which was framed, raised and boarded in one day, and that he moved in the next day. He made his will Dec. 8, 1809, proved June 27, 1810; spoke of wife Elisabeth and Reuben Simonds Blood, but mentioned no children. He d. May 5, 1810, a. 74ys.

SWITS.

CORNELIS CLAESE, resident in New Amsterdam as early as 1639, received Dec. 13, 1645, a patent for bouwery No. 5, on Manhattan island, comprising 25 morgens, 296 rods of land, which he sold March 22, 1653, to Willem Beeckman, [Patents G G 129 and H H 23.] Feb. 7, 1664, Ariaentje Cornelissen, wid. of Cornelis Claese Swits, and wife of Albert Leenderts of New Amsterdam, presented a petition to the governor and council, praying, that as her farm had been cut up into lots and distributed among the settlers in Harlem, she may be released from a debt due the West India Company by her late husband, who had been murdered by the Indians in 1655; granted. Dutch MSS. x³, 37. Cornelis Claese Swits had, by his wife above mentioned, the following children, all bp. in New Amsterdam (New York): Claes Cornelise; Apolonitje, Feb. 17, 1641; Jacob and Isaac, Oct. 5, 1642; Jacob, Feb. 5, 1645; Abraham, March 10, 1647; Apolonia, Oct. 25, 1648; Cornelis, July 9, 1651; Pieter, Oct. 12, 1653; Cornelia, Oct. 31, 1655.

CLAES, son of Cornelis, was hired Jan. 13, 1663, by Willem Teller of Beverwyck as his bouw-knecht to work his bouwery at Schenectady; during the summer following, while at work on Teller's land on the Groote Vlachte, he was accidentally killed by Philip Hendrickse Brouwer with a gun, for which offence Brouwer was acquitted both by the governor and by the friends of the deceased. Notarial Papers 1, 410.

ISAAC, alias Kleyn Isaack, son of Cornelis, settled in Schenectady in 1664, in which year he and Claes Frederickse Van Petten hired Willem Teller's bouwery, gelegen op Schanectede bestaende in woonhuys, Schuer-bergh en bouwlant in twee parcelles genomeneert van den lant meter No. 5 &c. His village lot was on the west side of Washington street opposite the west end of State street. At the destruction of the town, Feb. 9, 1690, he was carried away captive with his eldest son, but returned the following July. During his absence, a parcel of land owned by him, probably near the junction of Green and Ferry streets, was taken by order of the governor for the erection of a new fort. He repeatedly petitioned the governor and council, once Nov. 2, 1704, and again Oct. 21, 1706, for remuneration in money (£30), or for a land grant. On the 16th of April, 1707, the Indian proprietors gave him a deed for 1,000 acres of land lying along the south side of the Mohawk river, extending from the Aalplaats to Rosendal, a patent for which was granted to Isaac Swits's son, Cornelius, October 2, 1708.

(Council Minutes x 62, Land Papers iv, 28, 120). On the 7th day of July, 1702, Isaac Swits bought of Evert, son and heir of Gerrit Bancker, his bouwery on the Groote Vlachte, and his village lot about 200ft. square on the south corner of Union and Washington streets, all for £183, 12s; the bouwery remained in possession of the family more than 100 years; the village lot was sold soon after its purchase. He made his will April 1, 1701, proved Oct. 4, 1707, then his 8 children were all living. He m. Susanna, dau. of Simon Groot. Ch. bp: Cornelis; Simon, b. TELLER.

WILLEM, the first settler of the name in New Netherland, was b. in 1620. In a deposition made July 6, 1698, he stated that he arrived in the province in the year 1639, was sent to Fort Orange by Gov. Kieft, served there as corporal in the West India Company's service, was then advanced to be Wachtmeester of the fort; that he had continued his residence at Albany from 1639 to 1692, with some small intermissions upon voyage to New York, Delaware, and one voyage to Holland. He was a trader about 50 years in Albany, from whence he removed to New York in 1692, with his sons. He was one of the earliest proprietors of Schenectady in 1662, though probably never a permanent resident there, and one of the five patentees mentioned in the first patent of the town granted by Gov. Dongan in 1684. His allotments on the bouw-landt were numbered five, the foremost lot lying on the west side of, and separated by the Teller's killeitie, from Elias Van Gyseling's plantasie; and his village lot, 200 feet square, was on the east corner of Union and Washington streets. All his real estate in Schenectady was given, in 1700, to his son Johannes, who alone remained behind when the family removed to New York. He made his will Mar. 19, 1698, proved in 1701, and though a prosperous merchant, the inventory of his property amounted to only £910, 10s., 6p.; there is reason to believe, that as in the case of his Johannes, he had distributed most of his property among his children before his death. His first wife was Margaret Donchesen; she died before 1664, in which year he made a marriage contract with, and (April 9) m. Maria Varlett, wid. of Paulus Schrick; she d. in 1702, the year after the death of her husband; the inventory of her estate amounted to £1,275, 12s., 9p. Ch. b: Andries, b. 1642, m. GYSBERT GERRITSE, an early settler of Schenectady, made his will Dec. 10, 1709; gave to his son Gerrit the lot where Gerrit's house now stands, lying next to Jan Vroomans and Arent Danielse (Van Antwerpen's) lots, also his piece of land named Juffrouw's Land and half of the pasture, &c. His pasture of 5 morgens, bought of the patentees of Schenectady Feb. 11, 170 $\frac{3}{4}$, extended along the south side of Union street, from Ferry street to Maiden Lane, and south about half way to State street. In 1699 he bought the island west of Spuyten Duyvel, in the Mohawk river. VAN CURLER.

ARENT, was one of those characters who deserve to live in history. His influence among the Indians was unlimited, and in honor of his memory, these tribes addressed all succeeding governors of New York by the name of "Corlaer." He possessed feelings of the purest humanity, and actively exerted his influence in rescuing from the savages such Christians as had the misfortune to fall into their hands, of whose danger he might receive timely notice. On his marriage with Antonia Slaghboom, the widow of Jonas Bronck, about 1643, he visited Holland, and on his return, moved to the Flatts above Albany, where he had a farm. He was proprietor of a brewery in Beverwyck in 1661. Being a cousin of the Van Rensselaers, he had considerable influence in the colony, where he was a magistrate to the time of his death. He was one of the leaders in the settlement of Schenectady in 1661-2, and on the surrender of New Netherland, was specially sent for by Governor Nicoll to be consulted on Indian affairs and the interests of the country generally. He was highly respected by the governors of Canada, and the regard entertained for him by M. De Tracy, viceroy of that country, will be best judged of by the following extract of a letter which that high personage addressed him, dated Quebec, April 30, 1667:

"If you find it agreeable to come hither this summer, as you have caused me to hope, you will be most welcome, and entertained to the utmost of my ability, as I have great esteem for you, though I have not a personal acquaintance with you. Believe this truth and that I am, sir, your affectionate and assured servant, TRACY."

Having accepted this invitation, Mr. Curler prepared for his journey. Gov. Nicoll furnished him with a letter to the viceroy. It bears date 20 May, 1667, and states that "Mons. Curler hath been importuned by divers of his friends at Quebec to give them a visit, and being ambitious to kiss your hands, he hath entreated my pass and liberty to conduct a young gentleman, M. Fontaine, who unfortunately fell into the barbarous hands of his enemies, and by means of Mons. Curler obtained his liberty." On the fourth of July following, Jeremias Van Rensselaer writing to Holland, announces that "our cousin Arendt Van Curler proceeds overland to Canada, having obtained leave from our general, and being invited thither by the viceroy, M. De Tracy." In an evil hour he embarked on board a frail canoe to cross Lake Champlain, and having been overtaken by a storm, was drowned, I believe, near Split Rock. In his death this country experienced a public loss, and the French of Canada a warm and efficient friend. [O'Callaghan's Hist. N. Netherland, I, 322.] Van Curler's village lot in Schenectady was probably on the north corner of Church and Union streets, and his bouwery, after his death called Juffrouw's Landt, comprised 114 acres lying immediately southwest of the village. After his death this farm was sold in parcels to divers individuals. His wid. continued to reside in Schenectady until her death, Jan. 15, 167 $\frac{1}{2}$. In consideration of the loss of her husband in public service, and of her house, barn and corn by fire, she received a license from Gov. Lovelace in 1672 to trade with the Indians. It was thought also, that her license would stop the quarrels of the other two tapsters, Cornelis Cornelise Viele and Akes Cornelise Gautsh (Van Slyck), the Indian. [Orders in Council, p. 127.] Mrs. Van Curler's will was admitted to probate in New York, and letters of administration issued to Willem Beeckman, Jan. 15, 1676. He reported April 5, 1681, the proceeds to be 10,805 guilders, 17 stivers in beavers, debts 21,171 guilders, 7 stivers. [Court Proceedings, Albany, I 20, 51.] Mr. Van Curler probably left no children.

VAN DER BAAST.

JORIS AERTSE, surveyor, and in 1689 clerk or secretary of Schenectady. He called himself an "Amsterdam boy;" in 1670 bought of Bastiaan De Winter a house and lot on the south corner of Union and Church streets, where he was killed on the night of Feb. 8, 1690, by the French and Indians. Feb. 27, 1693, the trustees of Schenectady, united with Pieter Bogardus, attorney for the heirs of Joris A. Van der Baast, in a conveyance to Gysbert Marselis of Albany, of Joris's Great island in the Mohawk river, between Scotia and Claas Graven's Hoek, and of the adjacent small islands except Kruisbessen and Spuyten Duyvel islands; said lands comprising 15 morgens, having been bought by Joris, of Jan De La Warde; also a house and lot in Schenectady and three morgens of land for a hofstede near land of wid. of Claas Graven.

VAN DER BOGART.

HARMEN MYNDERTSE, b. in 1612, came to New Netherland in 1631 as surgeon of the ship Eendracht, and continued in the West India Company's service until 1633, after which he resided in New Amsterdam until appointed commissary to Fort Orange. He was highly respected, though from all accounts, he appears to have been of an irascible temper. An instance is mentioned of his having attempted, in the excitement of a high quarrel, when both appear to have been in a violent passion, to throw the director general out of a boat in which they were sailing on the river; he was with difficulty prevented from accomplishing his purpose. He came to a violent death, I believe, in 1647 or 1648, and Carl Van Brugge succeeded him as commissaris at Fort Orange. [O'Callaghan's Hist. New Netherland.] Surgeon Van Der Bogart made his will in 1638, and left his property to his wife, Jillisje Claese Schouw of Zierickzee in Holland. After his death his wid. m. Jan Labbadie of Beverwyck. Ch: Myndert, bp. in New York, May 3, 1643; Frans, bp. Aug. 26, 1640, in New York; Lysbet, m. Harmen Janse Knickelbacker.

VAN SLYCK.

There were two early settlers of Beverwyck of this name; Willem, whose descendants settled below Albany, in Columbia county and elsewhere, and Cornelis Antonissen, alias "Broer Cornelis," so called by the natives. The latter is said to have married a Mohawk woman by whom he had several children: Jacques; Marten Mouris; Hilletie and perhaps Lea. Marten was in Beverwyck in 1661; gave name to the island (now Van Slyck's) lying in the Mohawk, west of Schenectady, and d. probably early in 1662; Hilletie, m. Pieter Danielse Van Olinda, and was often employed as the provincial interpreter for the Five Nations; Lea, m. first, Claas Willemse Van Coppernol, and secondly, Jonathan Stevens. "Broer Cornelis," d. in 1676. By reason of his eminent services rendered in bringing about peace with the natives, he received a patent for a large tract of land at Catskill; he also owned land near Cohoes.

VAN VELSEN alias VAN WEST-BROEK.

SWEER TEUNISE, one of the five patentees of the town of Schenectady in 1684. In 1664 he m. Maritie Myndertse, wid. of Jan Barentse Wemp, by which marriage he became possessed of the Poesten mill at Lubberde's land (Troy), and a lot of land in Albany. About this time he removed to Schenectady and built a grist mill on Mill lane; this was carried away by a flood, and rebuilt in 1673. In consideration of his loss, he was allowed to take an eighth instead of a tenth, as toll. In 1676 he was made magistrate of the village. In the massacre of 1690 he was slain, with his wife and four negro slaves, leaving no heirs. Besides half of Van Slyck's island, he owned the land on the south side of State street, from Church street nearly to Cowhorne creek, and extending upon the low land so as to comprehend about 25 acres. Before his death it was understood that he had in his will devised a half or a third of his property to the church, and the remainder to his wife's children by her first husband, but as this will, if it ever existed, was burned in the massacre, the church had no legal claim upon his estate. A compromise was therefore effected in 1696, the church taking that portion of his land lying on the south side of State street, between Church street and Dock street, together with the grist mill, and his wife's heirs the remainder. [See Albany Families.]

VEDDER.

HARMEN ALBERTSE, the first settler, was a trader in Beverwyck before the year 1657, when he sold to Rutger Jacobsen his house and lot gelegen in de doorpe beverwyck, breet voor en achter ses en dertich voet, lanch vier en sestich voet en met aen ganch van vyfte voet end breet lanch tot aen kil welcke gansch is gelegen tusschen goossen gerritsen en den vercooper &c. This lot was on the south side of State street, between Green and Pearl streets, and extended back only to the Rutten kil, now arched over and used as a sewer. The price of this house and lot was 2,325 guilders. In 1660 he returned to Holland; 1661 as agent for Dirk De Wolfe, merchant of Amsterdam, he erected a salt kettle on Coney island, which being claimed by the inhabitants of Gravesend, he brought a suit before the governor and council to make good his claim to it, and being beaten, abandoned the enterprise; 1663 leased his bouwery at Schenectady to Symon Groot for 6ys., at 500 guilders rent; 1664 Harmen Vedder, William Teller and Sander Leendertse Glen petitioned Gov. Stuyvesant to have their lands surveyed at Schenectady; 1668 being in Holland with other merchants from the province of New York, he purchased goods and chartered the ship King Charles and petitioned the king of England for permission to send the same to New York, which was granted; 1667 he lived in Albany in a house belonging to Dirk De Wolfe of Amsterdam, who, having returned to Holland, Gov. Nicolls ordered the house and lot to be confiscated; 1672 he bought of Dirk Hesselingh *de bouwery (daer den voorz; Dirk Hesselingh op woont op Schenectede), soo het landt, also huys, schuer ende twee berghen, &c., soo als het de voornoemde Hesselingh van Jurriaen Teunissen gecocht heeft gehad, &c., to be delivered to Harmen Vedder the coming May 1, 1672, together with the seed in the ground; this bouwery, No. 8 on the Bouwlandt, comprised 12 morgens and 130 rods of land and now forms the homestead of Col. D. D. Campbell of Rotterdam; 1672 Harmen Vedder and Barent Ryndertsen sold to Claese Janse Van Boekhoven and Ryck Claese Van Vranken *een sekere stuck landts geleeghen over de Rivier aen Canastagioene; con- sideration 550 skiples of wheat; 1673 he was appointed one of the three magistrates of Schenectady; 1674 was schout of the village, and with the magistrates was reprimanded for not showing due respect for the magistrates of Willemstadt (Albany), and for pretending to the privilege of Indian trade; he was particularly complained of because of his conduct towards Capt. Schuyler and was warned "to regulate himself accordingly." His village lot on the north side of Union street, was the same as occupied by the late Doct. Alexander G. Fonda, 51ft. front and 404ft. deep Amsterdam measure, extending to Front street; he purchased it of the heirs of Reinier, son of Domine Schaets of Albany, after his massacre by the French and Indians in 1690. His son Johannes occupied it after his death, which probably took place about the year 1715, for on the 3d of May that year, Arient Vedder, his brethren and sister petitioned the common council of Albany for the renewal of a release ("burnt at Schenectady when it was cut off") of a lot owned by their late father Harmen Vedder deceased, lying on the south side of the city of Albany. VROOMAN.

There were three early settlers of this name in Beverwyck and Schenectady.

PIETER MEESE, settled in Beverwyck; m. first,, and secondly, Volckie Pieterse, widow of Gerrit Jan Stavast. In 1677 he lived in Joncker street near the church; d. in 1684. His widow m.

Adriaan Appel, June 28, 1685. Pieter Meese had but one son, Matthys, who with his wife, Maria Arnoutse Viele, made a joint will in 1684, in which they spoke of only one child Geertruy.

JACOB MEESE, carpenter and surveyor of Beverwyck, m. Elisabeth, wid. of Teunis Cornelise Swart of Schenectady. He made his will July 20, 1691, proved Sept. 22, 1691, wife Elisabeth executrix; spoke of no children; his wife was to occupy "my house by the bridge formerly Domine Schaets."

HENDRICK MEESE, the third brother of this name, was living "behind Kinderhook" in 1670; same year leased of Robert Sanders the long island called Steenraby, for six years; 1677 moved to Schenectady, where his home lot was on the north side of State street, extending from Centre street to, and including the Central R. R. depot. His bowlandt was a portion of Van Curler's land; the engine house of N. Y. Central R. R. Co. southwest of the city, now stands nearly in the centre of his land; 1678 he mortgaged his house and barn lying opt voorste ende van t' Dorpe Shaenhechtady, &c. In the massacre of 1690 he was killed, with his son Bartel and two negroes. He left two sons, Adam and Jan.

ADAM, son of Hendrick Meese, b. in 1649 in Holland, was naturalized in the province of New York in 1715; in 1670, by consent of his father, he bound himself for two years to Cornelis Van den Burgh to learn the millwright's trade for 80 guilders and a pair of new shoes the first year, and 120 guilders the second year; 1683 built a mill on the Sand kil where the Brandywine mills now stand; 1688 bought lands of the Mohawk sachems at Fort Hunter; in 1690, when Schenectady was attacked and burned by the French and Indians, he saved his life by his bravery in defending his house which then stood on the west corner of Church and Front streets; on this occasion his first wife Engeltie, with her infant child, was killed, and his two sons Barent and Wouter were carried away captives to Canada; 1697 went to Canada with an embassy to try to obtain the release of his sons (one of whom had turned Catholic), his brother (Jan ?) and cousin (son of Pieter Meese of Albany), all carried away in 1690; 1703-1708 obtained a patent for the Sand kil and adjacent lands for mill purposes; 1714 obtained a patent for lands in Schoharie upon which he settled in 1715; some of the Palatines attempted to drive him off. He commenced a stone house 23ft. square by help of his sons, and had proceeded as far as the second story floor beams, when one night his unruly neighbors, led on by one Conrad Weiser, entirely demolished it. He then retired to Schenectady and petitioned to the governor for redress. The governor commanded the sheriff of Albany to arrest said Weiser, and succeeded, it is presumed, in stopping the opposition to Vrooman's cultivating his land. [Doc. History, III, 412.] In 1726 he received an additional patent for 1,400 acres for his son Pieter; made his will September 12, 1729, proved June 13, 1730, spoke of the following children, save Christina and Jannetie, d. on his farm in Schoharie Feb. 25, 1730, and was buried in his private burying ground No. 35 Front street.
